

Report on Annual Prize Distribution Ceremony – RKMV

Date: 5th December 2025

Venue: Auditorium

Timing: 11:30

Total students: 205

Principal

RKMV, Shimla.

The Annual Prize Distribution Ceremony of RKMV was held on 5th December 2025 with great enthusiasm and dignity. The college had the honour of welcoming the Honourable Governor of Himachal Pradesh, Shri Pratap Shukla, as the Chief Guest, along with the First Lady, Smt. Janaki Shukla the Chairperson of the State Red Cross Hospital Welfare Section.

The event commenced with a Guard of Honour, by NCC Cadets of RKMV. The Guard of Honour by NCC cadets of RKMV is a formal ceremonial welcome given to the Chief Guest. Cadets stand in disciplined formation, salute the dignitary, and showcase their training, respect, and teamwork. It reflects the college's pride, discipline, and NCC excellence.

The Guard of Honour followed by a thought-provoking Nukkad Natak on Anti-Drug Awareness that exposes how drugs silently destroy youth, families, and society — and how awareness, support, and courage can save lives.

The Governor and the First Lady then visited the Painting Department, accompanied by Principal Dr. Anurita Saxena, where they appreciated the creative works of the students.

Formal Proceedings

The event was further honoured by the presence of several distinguished guests, including:

- Secretary to Governor ACP CP Verma
- IPS Sh. Dattatreya Verma
- ASP Ma. Meher
- SDM (Urban) Ms Oshin Sharma
- Councillor Ms Meenu Chauhan
- Mr. Anil Lakhan Pal
- Associate Professor Deepak Kaprete

After the formal welcome and ceremonial lamp lighting, Principal Dr. Anurita Saxena presented the Annual Report, highlighting the college's achievements in:

- Academics
- Sports
- Societies and clubs
- Scholarship programmes
- Social outreach activities.

Governor's Address

In his inspiring address, Governor Shri Pratap Shukla praised the college for strengthening Nari Shakti, noting the remarkable accomplishments of girls in every field.

He highlighted several important themes:

- Growing importance of AI and the need for students to adopt new technologies wisely.

- Environmental responsibility and the value of blood donation.
- The need to stay rooted in India's culture and traditions while progressing with modern advancements.
- Concern over the drug menace in Himachal Pradesh, emphasizing that drugs destroy families and society. He called for collective action through the Youth Red Cross, Panchayats, and educational institutions.
- India's global economic rise, noting that the nation currently stands at the 4th position economically, with the potential to become the 3rd largest economy in the coming years.
- The importance of the Triveni bond among teachers, students, and parents as the foundation of strong educational growth.

He concluded by emphasizing that education is transformative, excess in anything should be avoided, and the nation must always come first.

Cultural Programme

Following the Governor's address, a vibrant cultural programme was presented by the Dance Departments, showcasing the rich talent and creativity of the students.

Prize Distribution

The Prize Distribution Ceremony began with the awarding of academic prizes, followed by honours in:

- Sports
- Cultural activities
- CSCA
- Societies and clubs

In total, 194 students were felicitated for their outstanding achievements.

Additionally, the Nidhi Lakhanpal Jyoti Scholarship was awarded to 11 deserving students, recognising their excellence and dedication by Mr. Anil Lakhan Pal.

After this, the Chief Guest—Hon'ble Governor—and the First Lady were felicitated by the Principal Ma'am with a special painting made by the students of the Painting Department, along with a flower pot and a millet potli.

The event concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Dr. Surender Sharma Department of Hindi. In his address, he expressed gratitude to all those who contributed to the success of the programme — including the chief guests, speakers, organizers, faculty members, students, and support staff. He acknowledged their efforts, participation, and dedication, highlighting how each individual played an important role in making the event meaningful and well-organized. His words provided a warm and appreciative conclusion to the gathering, leaving the audience with a sense of accomplishment and positivity.

The ceremony ended with the National Anthem, marking the successful culmination of a memorable and inspiring celebration.